

File eviction enforcement proceedings

Description of Service:

This service enables customers to file eviction enforcement proceedings on the judgment, having enforcement seal on, issued by First Instance Tribunals or appeal the decisions to Appellate Courts.

Customer may choose one of the motions:

- 1. Stay of Proceedings: Stay enforcement proceedings because of settlement, payment, temporary suspension of proceedings pending Appeal decision, having the judgment repealed in Appeal or an injunction in process.
- 2. Continuation of Proceedings: Following a decision on appeal, injunction, or scheduling a new date for eviction following the dossier is filed.
- 3. Rebate or Valuation: Enabling a bailiff to visit enforcement premises to estimate goods and chattels that are not priced before.
- 4. Receipt or Return: Enabling the Enforcement Defendant or occupant of the premises to receive unattached personal goods and chattels
- 5. Appoint or Replace a Receiver: Appoint or replace a receiver
- 6. Respite Motion: Enforcement Defendant shall submit a respite motion to settle the matters with Enforcement Claimant or shall vacate the leased property.

7. Motion Facilitating Commission of an Expert: The expert shall visit the premises along with a bailiff and police to carry out his commission.
8. Request of Photocopy, Amendment or Certificate: Request to obtain photocopy of the inventory, the enforcement writ, or the certificate of "to whom it may concern" to be submitted to competent authorities

Required Documents:

1. A copy of judgment stamped with Enforcement Seal
2. A copy of Enforcement Writ detailing the claims mentioned in the dispositive part of the judgment.
3. A passport copy of Enforcement Claimant
4. A passport copy of Enforcement Defendant, if he/she is a natural person, in accordance with dispositive part of the judgment, along with residency (for expatriate) and a copy of Emirates ID.
